RelyOn Nutec
360° Safety

LBSRDL004

Control of Substances Hazardous to Health (COSHH)

Duration	40 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Explain what COSHH is & why we need it LO2: Explain the COSHH Regulations LO3: Describe the employer and employee duties under the COSHH regulations LO4: Identify how you may come into contact with a hazardous substance LO5: Explain what a Safety Data Sheet is LO6: Identify the COSHH hazard symbols LO7: Describe the different control measures that can be used LO8: Identify the personal protective equipment specific to chemical applications LO9: Describe a COSHH Risk Assessment LO10: Identify good practices related to COSHH
Contents	The course is available in the following languages: English; Bahasa Malay; Spanish; Indonesian; Thai; Turkish This Control of Substances Hazardous to Health course is suitable for all candidates working with hazardous substances on a regular basis. The content in this course has been developed by qualified chemists and fully satisfies the requirements of the UK COSHH Regulations.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.