RelyOn Nutec
360° Safety

OBSRDL022

Fire Safety Awareness

Duration	45 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Identify relevant legislative requirements for fire safety in the workplace LO2: Recognise the key roles and responsibilities of the employer and the employee LO3: Explain how the Fire Tetrahedron works LO4: Explain the contributing factors of fire spread and intensity LO5: Identify the various types of fire gases LO6: Recognise relevant fire signage used in the workplace LO7: Identify potential fire hazards within the workplace LO8: Explain good practice for workplace fire prevention LO9: Describe the actions you should take in an emergency LO10: Identify the various classes of fire and associated means of suppression LO11: Explain how to safely use different extinguisher types LO12: Recognise the various types of fixed fire prevention equipment found in the workplace
Contents	The course is available in the following languages: English; Brazilian Portuguese; Spanish; Norwegian, Bahasa Malay, Dutch, German; Indonesian; Thai This course provides delegates with an overall understanding of fire safety in the workplace. You will learn about relevant health and safety legislation, theory on the nature of fire and how it spreads, along with practical guidance on fire prevention and workplace firefighting equipment.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.