RelyOn Nutec
360° Safety

IBSRDL625

Maritime Security Awareness - OSHA Standards

Duration	20 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Describe common threats to maritime security LO2: Explain the elements of a Security Plan LO3: Identify changes to operations under different MARSEC levels LO4: Describe the different roles of security and non-security personnel LO5: Explain standard security procedures, including prohibited items and areas and communication LO6: Identify how to respond to suspicious behaviour and objects
Contents	The course is available in the following languages: US English; Mexican Spanish. The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. In this course you will learn about common threats to maritime security and how they are mitigated through the use of a Security Plan and by adhering to MARSEC levels. You will be able to describe the different roles of personnel and explain standard security procedures. You will also be able to identify how to respond to suspicious behaviour and objects. This is a non-approved course.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.