RelyOn Nutec
360° Safety

LBSRDL025

Water Management - Dosing, Sampling, Cleaning and Maintenance

Duration	30 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Describe how to correctly dose potable water with disinfectant LO2: Describe how to conduct potable water sampling to reduce potable water hazards LO3: Describe the cleaning and maintenance of a potable water system to reduce potable water hazards LO4: Describe the additional control measures employed to reduce potable water hazards
Contents	This course is aimed at 2nd Engineers, Chief Officers, Medics or similar. This module – Sample, Dosing, Cleaning and Maintenance – is part of a comprehensive Water Management programme. There are four modules in total which can also be completed separately by job role. This module will guide candidates through how to correctly dose potable water, conducting sampling of potable water through various methods and the cleaning and maintenance methods required to reduce hazards.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.