RelyOn Nutec
360° Safety

IBSRDL632

SEMS II Awareness Online Course - OSHA Standards

Duration	20 minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Explain the governing bodies behind Safety And Environmental Management Systems (SEMS) and which businesses need to have one LO2: Identify the General Management Program Principles LO3: Explain safety and environmental information LO4: Describe the purpose of hazards analysis LO5: Explain the requirements for management of change and operating procedures LO6: Identify the requirements for safe working practices and training under SEMs LO7: Outline the importance of quality assurance and mechanical integrity and pre-start up reviews LO8: Describe the purpose of an Emergency Response and Control Plan and incident investigation LO9: Outline the steps of an audit program and importance of documentation and recordkeeping
Contents	The course is available in the following languages: US English; Spanish The aim of this course is to inform delegates about Safety and Environmental Management Systems (SEMS), including governing bodies and General Management Program Principles. Employers should provide additional training when a new hazard/procedure/condition or piece of equipment is introduced into the workplace or “unscheduled” refresher training is recommended as directed to address inadequacies in knowledge and to address unsafe acts/deviations from procedures.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.