RelyOn Nutec
360° Safety

OBSRDL006

Excavation

Duration	60 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Define what an excavation is LO2: Identify the need for an excavation procedure LO3: Identify the roles and responsibilities associated with excavations LO4: Describe the hazards associated with excavations LO5: Describe how to plan an excavation LO6: Identify what PPE is required LO7: Identify and describe excavation support systems LO8: Describe the emergency response arrangements LO9: Identify the safety checks required before work can begin within the excavation LO10: Identify safety requirements during excavations LO11: Describe how to carry out an excavation LO12: Describe the backfilling procedure
Contents	Excavations can be very dangerous places for personnel in and around the work-site. This course shows candidates how to spot the dangers associated with excavations and what controls are necessary to prevent injury.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.