RelyOn Nutec
360° Safety

OBSRDL009

Energy Isolations (LOTO)

Duration	60 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Explain why energy isolation is required LO2: Explain the purpose of isolations LO3: Describe key terminology used in isolations LO4: List the legislation applicable to LOTO LO5: Explain who is typically involved in isolations LO6: Describe the training requirements for workers involved in isolations LO7: List the 8 steps of isolation LO8: Give examples of when to use lock out LO9: Identify the different types of isolation devices LO10: Describe what to do if lock out cannot be used
Contents	The course is available in the following languages: English, German, Dutch. This is an awareness course, suitable for all employees working in hazardous industries. Candidates will learn what energy isolations are and how they fit into the isolation process. Delegates will be able to demonstrate an understanding of key terminology and equipment used in the isolation process and the legislation associated with LOTO.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.