

FSE First aid training

Duration 3 hours

Target group This course is designed to provide thorough training for professionals (Electricians and other professionals) involved with electrical installations, ensuring they are prepared to administer first aid in emergencies.

Prerequisites There are no prerequisites for this course.

Objective First Aid Preparedness - Life-saving first aid including treatment of electrical injuries.

Contents In this course, you will go through the following topics:
Personal Safety and Alerting
Patient Assessment
ABC Measures
CPR
Specialized First Aid Training for Electrical Accidents:
Cardiac Arrest
Burn Injuries
Electrical Shock
Fall Injuries
Bleeding

Exam There is no examination required.
Certification upon completion of this course + theoretical course, is valid for 12 months.