

Industrial Training with B. A - Refresher

Duration	4 hours annually
Target group	All smoke divers and smoke-diving team leaders in industrial protection groups.
Prerequisites	Smoke Diving - Basic Course.
Objective	The course aims to give the participants a good basis for further training within their own company, so that they become capable of carrying out rescue work and extinguishing fires in smoke and heat, on their own or in collaboration with the municipal fire service.
Contents	During the course, the following topics will be covered: Theory: -Smoke-diving techniques and tactics -Safety provisions for smoke diving. Practice: -Systematic searches -Hot smoke diving, including search and rescue, and fire-fighting.
Exam	None.