

MBS110

Survival Suit Course

Duration 4 hours

Target group A course for businesses and delegates that are interested in practical skills and extra knowledge about the survival suit.

Prerequisites None.

Objective On completing the course, participants should be able to dress in a survival suit and perform different survival techniques.

Contents Theory: Important factors for surviving in rough sea including the survival suits qualities.
Practical exercises: Dress in a survival suit and perform a correct buddy check. Perform formations suited in different weather conditions and realistic exercises in water.

Perform formations suited in different weather condition. Include realistic exercises.

Exam None.