

Control of Substances Hazardous to Health (COSHH)

---

Duration 40 Minutes

---

Target group Oil & Gas Industry

---

Prerequisites No prerequisites are required to sit this course.

---

Objective

- LO1: Explain what COSHH is & why we need it
- LO2: Explain the COSHH Regulations
- LO3: Describe the employer and employee duties under the COSHH regulations
- LO4: Identify how you may come into contact with a hazardous substance
- LO5: Explain what a Safety Data Sheet is
- LO6: Identify the COSHH hazard symbols
- LO7: Describe the different control measures that can be used
- LO8: Identify the personal protective equipment specific to chemical applications
- LO9: Describe a COSHH Risk Assessment
- LO10: Identify good practices related to COSHH

---

Contents

The course is available in the following languages: English; Bahasa Malay; Spanish; Indonesian; Thai; Turkish

This Control of Substances Hazardous to Health course is suitable for all candidates working with hazardous substances on a regular basis. The content in this course has been developed by qualified chemists and fully satisfies the requirements of the UK COSHH Regulations.

---

Exam

The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.