

LBS608

DOT Hazardous Materials Transport Awareness (4-hour)

Duration 1/2 day

Target group Candidates involved in the transportation of hazardous materials.

Prerequisites There is no prerequisite for this course.

Objective Upon completion of the course, the delegate will be able to:

- Identify the proper shipping methods for hazardous materials in air, water, and land
- Recognize the information needed on shipping papers for various types of hazardous material
- Utilize the proper labeling, marking, and placarding required for hazardous waste transportation
- Develop information gathering techniques needed for required incident reporting and emergency notification
- Show understanding of the documentation of shipping papers

Contents The topics covered during this training are:

- Classification of Hazardous Materials
- Hazardous Material Table
- Packaging
- Marking
- Labeling
- Shipping Papers
- Vehicle Loading and Unloading
- Safety and Emergency Response
- Placarding
- Exceptions and Exemptions
- Motor Carrier Responsibilities
- HAZMAT Security Awareness

Exam The delegate will be required to attain a minimum score of 70% on a written assessment.