

MTC632

Tank Barge Dangerous Liquids (HOUSTM-491) (Tankerman)

Duration	4 days
Target group	Any applicant who successfully completes your Tank Barge Dangerous Liquids Course and applies for endorsement within five years of completion will satisfy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •The course requirements of 46 CFR 13.301(c)(4) for original issuance OR 13.120(c)(2) for renewal of Tankerman-PIC (Barge) (DL); AND •The cargo course requirements of 46 CFR 13.401(e)(I) for original issuance OR 13.120(b)(2) for renewal of Tankerman-Assistant (DL); AND •Meets the standards of competence, required by 46 CFR 13.609(a)(2), of Section A- V/1, Table A-V/1-1-1 of the STCW Code for Basic Oil AND Chemical Tanker Cargo Operations; AND •Provided the applicant also supplies a statement signed by the Master, or Chief Mate of an Oil AND/OR Chemical Tanker, appropriate to the endorsement sought, that the mariner has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the signer that he or she is fully capable of supervising the transfer and operations of dangerous liquid cargo in accordance with the guidance found in Navigation Vessel Inspection Circular 22-14 (Encl 1, paragraphs 4 or 5):
Prerequisites	The Code of Federal Regulations 46 CFR 10.403(a)(3) requires training to be administered entirely in the English language unless specifically approved to be presented in another language. Students must be able to read and write in English to take the written exam and successfully complete the course.
Objective	This 32-hrs course is designed to satisfy the minimum training requirements set forth in Coast Guard regulations for the position of Tankerman-PIC (Barge).
Contents	Classification of oils Hazards of dangerous liquid cargoes Auxiliary systems Inert gas systems Gas free operations Basic stability Pre-transfer requirements Loading operations Discharge operations Ballasting/Deballasting Tank cleaning Recordkeeping Pollution prevention Spill response Emergency procedures

Exam

To successfully complete this course, each candidate must obtain a grade percentage of not less than 70% on a written examination.

46 CFR 10.403(a)(4) requires a written examination. Course Instructors are not permitted to assist with taking written exams.