

OBS6690

ISPLR-Inflatable Single Place Life Raft

Duration	2 hour
Target group	Offshore personnel
Prerequisites	None
Objective	The objective of the ISPLR-Inflatable Single Place Life Raft training is to familiarize personnel traveling offshore how to use the fully reversible, easy boarding raft to maximize water survival survivability.
Contents	Contents covered in this course will explain the ISPLR technical specifications and use of the device which include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- 180 lbs. of buoyancy- Fully Reversible- Quick and easy boarding- Low-slung floor design for significantly enhanced seating comfort and stability in water- Weather-tight canopy protection with viewing window- Three layer inflation chamber design for redundancy- Vacuum packaging available for extended TBO- Stowage pockets for personal safety items- Compact bailer and sea anchor included- Easily transportable between aircraft- Optional inflatable floor for enhanced thermal protection
Exam	Course completion will consist of watching a demonstration video of the ISPLR device and demonstration by instructor.