

Slips, Trips and Falls for Wind Energy

Duration 30 minutes

Target group Personnel who will be working in the wind industry or related fields, and will carry out their duties in a wind turbine environment, usually in physical contact with a wind turbine or offshore wind structure.
Personnel that perform job functions that have been risk assessed by their employer or workplace, where training according to one or more modules of the BST standard may mitigate the identified risks.

Prerequisites No prerequisites are required to sit this course.

Objective

- LO1: Outline the impact of slips, trips and falls on accidents statistics
- LO2: Give an overview of slips, trips and fall hazards
- LO3: Give an overview of slips, trips and fall hazards on wind turbine generators
- LO4: Give an overview of slips, trips and fall hazards in the office and at home
- LO5: Give an overview of the importance of good housekeeping
- LO6: Outline the typical hazards involved in work at height
- LO7: Describe the prevention of falls from height
- LO8: Give an overview of ladder safety
- LO9: Explain the trailing hand technique

Contents The aim of this course is to explain how to prevent slips, trips and falls while working in the wind industry and at home.

Exam The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.