

CITB Site Manager Safety Training Scheme Refresher

Duration 2 Days

Target group Personnel operating in roles such as Site Manager, Project Manager or Health and Safety Manager

Prerequisites You must provide valid photographic ID such as a Passport or Driving Licence. Must also have an appropriate level of fluency in English. Course material is also provided. Qualification valid for 5 years.

Objective Our SMSTS courses are designed for workers who have responsibilities planning, monitoring, controlling, organising or administering groups of staff. It is suitable for professionals in the following roles: Site Manager. Project Manager. Health and Safety Manager.

Contents "The five-day CITB SMSTS courses cover a wide range of legislation relevant to working in the building, construction and civil engineering industries. It focuses on the need for risk assessments within the workplace. For instance, the importance of efficient communication and structure. Moreover, you will learn how to implement the necessary control measures to encourage good health and safety standards within the workforce. By the end of the course delegates will be able to:

- State your duties and responsibilities with regards to health, safety, welfare as well as the environment.
- Implement new guidance as well as industry best practices.
- Implement all health, safety, welfare and environmental legislation affecting your daily work.
- Understand their individual responsibilities for their own safety and also the safety of others.
- How to control typical construction hazards.
- How everyone can help achieve better practical standards of safety on site.
- Legal Requirements and Liabilities.
- Working at Height.
- Manual Handling.
- Fire Prevention.
- Work Equipment.
- Occupational Health"

Exam There is an examination paper with 25 multiple choice questions as well as a 72% pass mark. You must complete the examination in 30 minutes.