

Maritime Security Awareness - OSHA Standards

Duration 20 Minutes

Target group Oil & Gas Industry

Prerequisites No prerequisites are required to sit this course.

Objective

- LO1: Describe common threats to maritime security
- LO2: Explain the elements of a Security Plan
- LO3: Identify changes to operations under different MARSEC levels
- LO4: Describe the different roles of security and non-security personnel
- LO5: Explain standard security procedures, including prohibited items and areas and communication
- LO6: Identify how to respond to suspicious behaviour and objects

Contents

The course is available in the following languages: US English; Spanish. The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour.

In this course you will learn about common threats to maritime security and how they are mitigated through the use of a Security Plan and by adhering to MARSEC levels. You will be able to describe the different roles of personnel and explain standard security procedures. You will also be able to identify how to respond to suspicious behaviour and objects. This is a non-approved course.

Exam The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.