

Legionella: Role of the Responsible Person / Duty Holder / Landlord

Duration	2 days
Target group	Those who manage the risk of legionella i.e. Responsible Persons, Duty Holders, Deputy Responsible Persons, Landlords, Water Treatment Account Managers, Risk Assessors, Auditors. The course delivers a global awareness of legionella control in water system management. Content covers all necessary legal requirements and introduces systems (focusing on hot and cold). Material is wholly based on best practice documents ACOP L8 / HSG 274 Parts 1-3. The course is City & Guilds Assured and comes with certification, for those successful in assessment.
Prerequisites	Preferable: Legionella Awareness Training / Experience working on hot and cold water systems or managing health and safety
Objective	To understand the ACOP L8 / HSG274's requirements and how to apply them
Contents	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Legionellosis Refresher• HSE Approved Code of Practice and Associated Technical Guidance Documents• Duty Holder and Appointed Competent Person (Responsible Person).• Legionella Risk Assessing• Written Control Scheme• Water System Design and Commissioning• Schematics• Shared Premises and Residential Accommodation Lettings• Special Consideration for Healthcare and Care Homes• Biocides• Microbial Monitoring• HSE Inspection
Exam	Single multiple choice question, open book assessment Pass rate: 15/20 questions correct Re-sit Question for those achieving 14/20 on the day