

Single Point Safe Isolation

Duration	1 day
-----------------	-------

Target group	Personnel handling electrical isolation procedures, focusing on safety regulations, HS(G)85 practices, and correct equipment use
---------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Prerequisites	There are no prerequisites for this course.
----------------------	---------------------------------------------

Objective	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Confidence that the Mechanical/Maintenance staff members can carry out their own electrical isolation procedure on the equipment they are maintaining, competently and safely.
------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Contents	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dangers of Electricity.• Relevant statutory Safety Regulations (EAWR 89).• HS(G)85 Safe Working Practices.• Single Point Safe Isolation procedure.• Equipment required to carry out the Isolation Procedure.
-----------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Exam	The course is delivered in the classroom with a practical demonstration and hands on practical on a Single Point Isolation. Learners assessed in written and practical exercises.
-------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------