

LBSRDL024

Water Management - Awareness

Duration 30 Minutes

Target group Oil & Gas Industry

Prerequisites No prerequisites are required to sit this course.

Objective LO1: Explain what wholesome water and potable water is
LO2: Receiving water alongside (ex-pipe, road tankers)
LO3: Receiving water from other vessels or barges
LO4: Reverse Osmosis
LO5: Evaporation
LO6: Explain the various water treatment options (disinfection) available, including Chlorination, UV filtration, Silver Ionisation, Ultra-filtration
LO7: Identify legislation applicable to water management
LO8: Describe water management responsibilities for key job roles

Contents The course is available in the following languages: English; Turkish.
This awareness course is aimed at Medics, 2nd Engineers, Chief Officers or similar. Candidates will be able to identify basic components of water management systems. Significantly reducing the harm to the environment.

Exam The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.