RelyOn

LER067

MEM - Command Team Training

Duration	2 days

Target group	This course is designed to teach those invovled in their installations' Emergency Command Centre (ECC), what assistance their OIM needs during a major emergency by using scenarion based training.

Prerequisites	N/A

Objective	After Completion, Delegates will be able to: Identify and understand emergency considerations Understand the theory of Emergency Management Understand Command and Control structures within the ECC Effectively use appropriate information management systems Understand the effects of stress during emergencies and mitigate it effectively

---

Contents	Topics Include: Emergency Considerations Theory of Emergency Management Dealing with Stress in Yourself and the team Information Management Systems Delegates will take part in simulated emergencies of incidents that can be managed and controlled by emergency teams on installations, leading up to events that are no longer controllable and evacuation of the installation. The severity of the emergency type is increased as the competency levels of the delegates develops.

Exam	Certification of competency will be issued on completion of the course.