

OBS009D

Virtual Classroom Offshore Safety Representative Initial Training

---

Duration 4 Days

---

Target group The course is for learners who are already or wish to become elected safety representatives

---

Prerequisites There are no learner pre-requisites for this training.

---

Objective This course aims to equip learners with the minimum level of training that safety representatives, who have been elected under the Safety Representatives and Safety Committees Regulations - SI 1989/971, should receive to assist them to fulfil their functions as defined in those regulations.

---

Contents This aim will be achieved by ensuring their ability to meet the following objectives:

- Understand workforce Engagement Framework
- Understand Major Accident Hazards
- Understand Proactive Safety Representative Involvement

Safety Representative Key Roles and Functions

- Asset Safety Legislation
- Regulatory Inspector Engagement and their role
- Participate in a group discussion on work experience
- Accessing and extracting relevant safety case information
- The role of the Safety Representative in preparing for visitors and inspections
- Major Accident Hazard Prevention
- Human Factors in Major Accident Hazards
- Risk Assessment and Investigation
- Proactive Safety Inspections
- Identifying and controlling major accident hazards using the bow-tie model
- A review of a relevant case study
- Core tasks relating to Major Incident Investigations
- Personal Effectiveness
- A series of task related exercises related to the Safety Representative's Role
- Developing a personal action plan

---

Exam Successful learners will be awarded an OPITO approved Offshore Safety Representative Initial Training certificate which has no expiry date