

UK Offshore Legislation (formerly OIM Legislation)

Duration	3 days
Target group	For those that require the awareness of UK offshore legislation to fulfil the requirements of their position including those based at corporate headquarters, Offshore Installation Managers(OIM), asset and facilities managers, safety advisors, supervisors and safety officers.
Prerequisites	There are no pre-requirements for this course.
Objective	The UK Offshore Legislation course serves to provide individuals working in Health and Safety Management positions offshore with the awareness and understanding of current UK offshore legislation
Contents	Module 1: HASWA, EC Legislation, Working Time Regulations, Noise and Vibration Regulations and European 6 Pac. Module 2: MAR - PFEER- DCR and Pipeline Regulations. Module 3: Safety Case Regulations, Risk Assessments, SIMOPS and Bridge Docs. Module 4: LOLER-PUWER-COSHH, Working at Height Regulations and Confined Space Regulations. Module 5: RIDDOR, Safety Representatives and Accident Investigation. Module 6: BEIS (OPRED), Waste Management and Offshore Pollution Regulations Module 7: SOLAS, IMO, IAMSAR, CAA and ERRV Regulations.
Exam	On successful completion of this course, delegates will be issued a RelyOnNutech UK Offshore Legislation certificate. The duration of this course is 4 days and is a combination of both theory and practical content. This course can be delivered at RelyOnNutech training centres in Dyce.