

Utility SHEA - Gas

Duration	1 day
-----------------	-------

Target group	This course covers the essentials of safety, health and environmental awareness; designed for those working across the energy and utilities sector, focussing on Gas Networks.
---------------------	--

Prerequisites	There are no prerequisites for this course.
----------------------	---

Objective

Contents	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understanding our workplace responsibilities.• Understanding the effects of our work on the environment.• Identifying and controlling risks.• Common hazards in the workplace.• Occupational health hazards.• Responding to emergencies.• Highway working and excavations.• Pressure regulating installations.• Safety in premises.
-----------------	---

Exam	SHEA assessments (tests) are multiple choice and structured so that there is an assessment per module. They can be taken one module at a time, or all together at the same time.
-------------	--