

VCA VOL E-Learning + Exam Rotterdam

Duration	1 hour
Target group	Employees who manage on a construction site, such as foremen and group managers. This also includes employees who are hired through an employment agency. Self-employed persons also fall under the category of managers and must therefore also have a VCA diploma if they want to work at a VCA-certified company.
Prerequisites	No prerequisites mandatory. E learning needs to be completed before attending the exam.
Objective	VCA VOL means V GM (Safety, Health and Environment) C checklist Contractors For Operational Managers. The VCA VOL specifically addresses those items that managers have to deal with when managing their subordinates with an eye for their safety, health and the environment.
Contents	Part A: Preparing, discussing and inspecting the work; Part B: Carrying out work; Part C: Controlling specific hazards; Section D: Incident and Emergency Management.
Exam	The VCA exam consists of knowledge questions and application-oriented questions. Exam is taking place in Rotterdam