

LER0012

Information management for crisis management

Duration	0.5 day
-----------------	---------

Target group	Members of the crisis management team, note takers, scribes, loggers.
---------------------	---

Prerequisites	Basic crisis management training.
----------------------	-----------------------------------

Objective	After completing the information management training, loggers/note takers/reporters or other members of the crisis management team can implement information management processes such as reporting/logging and plotting. Organizing, structuring and sharing information for the CMT. Creating a meeting report according to the 6-column model and completing status boards, creating a situational sketch.
------------------	---

Contents	Bespoke
-----------------	---------

Exam
-------------	--