

LER0013

Leading a crisis management team

Duration	1 day
-----------------	-------

Target group	Chairman (or deputy) of a crisis management team.
---------------------	---

Prerequisites	Basic crisis management training.
----------------------	-----------------------------------

Objective	After completing the training for chairs of a crisis management team, participants can lead the crisis management team under time pressure, and are competent in decision making under time pressure. They are skilled in managing the team using the PADAC meeting model, and can make an impact analysis. They are familiar with stakeholder communication, crisis communication and the responsibilities of the different roles in the crisis team. Participants can mobilize and scale up and escalate to the next higher level.
------------------	--

Contents	Bespoke
-----------------	---------

Exam
-------------	--