

Basic Banksman (NOGEPA 1.9A)

Duration	3 days
Target group	Persons assigned to hoisting activities on a mining installation.
Prerequisites	A valid offshore medical certificate.
Objective	In the 3-day module Working with Loads knowledge on possible risks, (inspection of) equipment, legislation etc. will be provided as well as all skills required for working with loads en movements of cranes and their ability and the forces within all the equipment used for lifting. By offering a sound course consisting of both theoretical and practical training RelyOnNutech is aiming to contribute to a safer work environment for personnel in the offshore industry. Objective: To ensure that the delegate is able to act safely and efficiently as banksman during hoisting activities.
Contents	Safety and house rules during the course. Objectives and course program. Laws and regulations, North Sea Lifting (NSL) rules. LOLER and EN standards. Different lifting equipment. Use of cranes offshore. Transport of personnel. Different types of lifting operations. Rejection standards of lifting equipment Determine mass and weight. Visual inspections of lifting equipment. To choose and use different lifting tools in a correct way. To order a load to be moved by crane with the use of radios. To take precautions regarding the safety of all activities. To perform daily maintenance on lifting equipment. Storing and registration of lifting equipment. Wear and tear on lifting equipment. Inspection and testing criteria. Containers type, construction, loading and slinging in of the different types of containers. Winches, chain hoists, tirlors and sheeves. Special loads.
Exam	Study targets given are test criteria for: - Written or oral assessment of the theoretical knowledge; - Final assessment by the instructor of the practical exercises; If all the learning targets are tested and assessed with a pass (responsibility of the institute) the course will be registered in the Personal Safety Logbook.