

OIM -CE NON OPITO

Duration	1 day
Target group	This training was designed for OIM, Superintendents, Captains in offshore facilities who can be required to control major emergencies.
Prerequisites	Delegates normally should work as OIM or Tool Pusher or First Officer, Second in Charge. It is highly recommended proficiency in English language.
Objective	Upon completion of the course the delegate will be able to: To assess in the theory, simulation and practices in the Control of Emergencies techniques. Review and test company procedures related to Emergency Response. Identify Emergencies Response deficiencies.
Contents	The following topics are covered during the training: Emergencies Management Philosophy Roles and Responsibilities Information Control Emergency Response Procedures Stress Control Team Control and Leadership Communication Assessed Exercises
Exam	Element 1 Evaluate the situation and take effective measures. Element 2 Keep communication. Element 3 Delegate authority to act. Element 4 Individual and team performance control. Element 5 Individual and team stress control.