

LBS800

DGUV PSAgA Fortbildung

Duration	1 Day
-----------------	-------

Target group	Persons who are intended to work in antennas, antenna masts and wind turbines with a height of more than 15 meters.
---------------------	---

Prerequisites	valid G41 medical Rescue at Heights Basic or Refresher not older than 1 Year
----------------------	---

Objective	After ending the course, the delegates must be: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Familiar with the contingency plan and CE / EN marking important- Familiar with the ATS rules for use of personal protective equipment,- The ability to customize personal protective equipment correctly- The ability to climb and move in the heights in a safe and sound manner- The ability to fill the control charts and conduct inspections using the personal protective equipment and rescue equipment,- The ability to perform personal rescue from antenna masts and wind turbines, etc. using rescue equipment
------------------	---

Contents	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Fall Energy and accident statistics,- CE Marking and European standards for personal protective equipment,- Rules and responsibilities for inspection / maintenance,- Manuals and control cards- Review of contingency plan- Operation of hoist equipment,- Practical exercises in hoisting of distress and self-evacuation,
-----------------	--

Exam	None, but all course elements must be completed with satisfaction for handing out certificate.
-------------	--