

RSE801

GWO Sea Survival incl. Boat Transfer Refresher

Duration	1 Day
-----------------	-------

Target group	Employees in the wind industry who travel offshore by crew transfer vessel to carry out work, e.g. entering a wind turbine via boat landing.
---------------------	--

Prerequisites	Valid medical certificate AWMF-S1 (DGMM) or equivalent Valid GWO Sea Survival certificate
----------------------	--

Objective	This Sea Survival Training aims to refresh already acquired knowledge and skills through open questions and practical training. Participants shall be able to act safely and take preventive measures in an offshore wind turbine environment in all aspects of offshore operations from shore to the installation vessel or on a wind turbine and back, both in normal operation and in an emergency.
------------------	--

Contents	Introduction Personal Life Saving Appliances and PPE Exposure, hypothermia and drowning Sea survival exercises Transfer exercises Evaluation
-----------------	---

Exam	Practical examination acc. GWO.
-------------	---------------------------------