

Hazard Awareness and Identification

Duration 60 Minutes

Target group Oil & Gas Industry

Prerequisites No prerequisites are required to sit this course.

Objective

- LO1: Explain what Hazard Identification is
- LO2: Identify methods of hazard identification
- LO3: Describe the different energy sources
- LO4: Identify examples of control measures for each energy source
- LO5: Identify contributing factors
- LO6: Describe how you can use your senses to detect hazards
- LO7: Explain the importance of good observation"

Contents

The course is available in the following languages: English; Brazilian Portuguese; Spanish; Norwegian; Bahasa Malay; Indonesian; Thai; Turkish. This course is suitable for all employees working in hazardous industries. It has been developed in accordance with the 'Step Change in Safety' initiative which promotes the establishment, maintenance and development of hazard identification and risk assessment systems to provide a safer work environment. On successful completion of this course, candidates will have an excellent appreciation of the key features of hazard identification systems used throughout the oil and gas industry.

Exam The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.