

OFI711

Basic Fire Fighting Training

Duration 3 Days

Target group The course is designed for personnel intending to work on Offshore/Onshore installation which forms part of a common Offshore Safety induction process

Prerequisites No prior training is required by delegates attending this training course.

Objective The course is designed for training and competence in basic knowledge of the causes of fire, and prevention and firefighting techniques as well as risk minimization as well as actions to be taken in the event of a fire or similar emergency. The course is structured with the emphasis on practical exercises designed to instill competence, and theoretical input on basic fire- fighting skills and techniques.

Contents The course consists of practical and theoretical training and knowledge of:

- Legislation and Legal Duties
- Chemistry of Combustion
- Fire triangle
- Classification & methods of Extinction.
- Actions to be taken in event of fire on-board ship.
- First Aid & classes of Fire
- Hose & Branch handling, exercises multi valve isolation.
- Intro to BA & Operations
- Foam lecture & Practical

Exam On completion of this course, a written assessment will be taken.