

CRO Control Room Operator

Duration	2 days
Target group	This assessment program is designed for Control Room Operators (CRO), who are assigned to control emergencies and critical situations on Offshore Installations.
Prerequisites	Delegates must be in possession of a valid BOSIET / FOET. Proficiency in written and spoken English is a must. It is recommended that the delegate has already performed in the role of CRO.
Objective	During the course / assessment delegates will demonstrate by means of practical simulation the necessary actions to take control of emergencies and critical situations.
Contents	Exercise Scenarios for the assessment will be taken from the following generic list:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Well control incident</li><li>• Explosion and fire</li><li>• Accommodation fire</li><li>• Helicopter incident</li><li>• Pipeline incident</li><li>• Collision or wave damage causing structural collapse</li><li>• Loss of stability (floating installations)</li></ul> The main assessment criteria will be focused towards: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Maintaining a state of readiness</li><li>• Controlling critical situations</li><li>• Responding to emergencies</li></ul>
Exam	Not applicable