

Standby Man / Firewatcher

Duration	Approx. 60 minutes
Target group	This course is suitable for all employees in the oil and gas industry.
Prerequisites	All delegates must be in possession of a valid medical certificate.
Objective	The Standby Man Firewatcher and Over The Side course is divided into two sections. Both sections need to be completed to perform Standby Man duties safely. This course will give your staff an excellent appreciation of the key features of both Firewatch and Over The Side systems used throughout the oil and gas industry. By completing this course, your staff will be able to work within any facility and appreciate how you can take an active role as a Standby Man. You will also have a proper understanding of your own personal responsibility for safety and a greater appreciation of behaving safely as a means of reducing workplace accidents.
Contents	Recognise the terms used in Firewatch and Standby Man - Over the Side Operations Be able to recall the different types of Fire Fighting Equipment Recognise the roles and responsibilities of all persons involved in Hotwork and Over the Side Operations Recognise what is required in planning and preparing for Hotwork and Over the Side Operations Be able to recall the different types of Hazards in Hotwork and Over the Side Operations Recognise the risks and precautions associated with Hotwork and Over the Side Working Recognise the accepted methods of Communication.
Exam	N/A