

Introduction to HAZOP

Duration	1 Day
Target group	This course is designed for all personnel who are involved with hazardous / process operations and hazard management process offshore and onshore.
Prerequisites	All delegates must be in possession of a valid medical certificate.
Objective	During the course delegates will gain an understanding of the principles and techniques used in the identification and control of process hazards and will learn about the historical background to HAZOP and where the techniques fits into the hazard management hierarchy.
Contents	Introduction and Definition of HAZOP Understand what HAZOP is Where HAZOP fits in with other Hazard Management Techniques When to use HAZOP How HAZOP is applied to Continuous, Batch and Computer Controlled Processes How the HAZOP Team should Operate The Role of the HAZOP Team Leader Hazard Studies and the Role of HAZOP Case Studies Discussion and Answer Session Interactive Workshops
Exam	N/A