

Banksman

Duration	2 days
Target group	This course is designed for all personnel involve in Banksman role.
Prerequisites	All delegates must be in possession of a valid medical certificate, At least 21 years of age. Malaysia, Permanent Residents or holder of valid employment pass / work permit. Must be physically and mentally fit for the training. Successful completed Shell "Rigging and Slinging" training course with at least 1 year experience in Rigger role.
Objective	To provide the necessary skills to control lifting operations, direct crane operator onshore and offshore in line with SMEP Lifting and Hoisting Manual and industry best practices.
Contents	Legislation and Regulation (OSHA, LOLER, PUWER) Roles and responsibilities of a Banksman and reporting structure. Lift Planning Crane operation Hand signal and voice commands Lift execution Hazard associated with lifting operations Practical and theoretical assessment papers
Exam	Not applicable