

Course code	IBSRDL628
Course name	Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) Awareness (OSHA)
Duration	32 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Explain the Hierarchy of Hazard Control LO2: Define Personal Protective Equipment LO3: Describe the requirements of PPE LO4: Describe the purpose of different types of hard hats and how to use them LO5: Identify the different types of hearing protection LO6: Describe the purpose of different types of eye and face protectors and how to use them LO7: Identify different types of hand protectors and how to use them LO8: Describe the purpose of different types of foot protectors and how to use them LO9: Identify different types of protect garments and how to use them LO10: Describe the purpose of different types of personal flotation devices and how to use them
Contents	The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour. 29 CFR 1910.132, 1910.133, 1910.135, 1910.136, 1910.138 29 CFR 1926.106 In this course you will learn about Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), including where PPE sits within the Hierarchy of Hazard Control. You will also be able to describe different types of PPE, including eye and face protectors, hand protectors, foot protectors, protect garments and personal flotation devices.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.