

LSC115

Industrial Protection Basic Course

Duration	3 days
Target group	All members of an industrial protection team.
Prerequisites	None.
Objective	After completing the basic training the participants should have acquired the attitudes, knowledge and skills required to take an active part in the work to prevent fire and accidents in the workplace and carry out emergency duties in the event of fire, accident or acute illness.
Contents	The course covers the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Industrial protection- Fire and accident prevention- Firefighting, theory- Firefighting, practice- First aid, theory- First aid, practice- Multi-exercise.
Exam	None.