

OBSBLE002

Basic Safety Training - Refresher Course (Norwegian) - E-learning

Duration	From 1 day + online
-----------------	---------------------

Target group	Offshore personnel who need to repeat the basic training every four years.
---------------------	--

Prerequisites	Valid Norwegian Oil and Gas Basic Safety Training course or equivalent training valid according to Norwegian Oil and Gas Guideline 002.
----------------------	---

Objective	The course aims to update the delegates' understanding and competence in order to ensure their own and other's safety, both while working and during a crisis. Upon completion, delegates should have maintained and updated their knowledge in the following areas: - Safe behaviour - Use of hand extinguisher - Life saving first aid - Using the escape chute - Correct use of survival suit with re-breathing system - Helicopter Underwater Escape Training (HUET)
------------------	--

Contents	The course follows the training guidelines issued by Norwegian Oil and Gas, and covers the following topics: Preventive safety/ protective work Fire protection Sea survival First aid Helicopter evacuation with the use of a re-breathing system. The course mainly consists of practical training and exercises.
-----------------	---

Exam	None. Delegates need to participate in, and complete, all modules
-------------	---