

OBSBLE045

Basic Safety Training (English) - with E-learning

Duration	eLearning + 3 days at center
Target group	Personnel working on the Norwegian Continental Shelf. Please note that this course is held in English.
Prerequisites	None. When you enrol in the course, you will receive a link to an e-learning module. This must be completed before you start the course. On the first day, a multiple choice test based on the e-learning will be completed.
Objective	To enable the delegates to protect their safety in an emergency situation and promote safe behaviour. The participant should be motivated to promote a better and safer working environment. Emphasis is placed on preventive measures that can avoid injuries to people, the environment and equipment. After completing the course, the participants should have basic knowledge and skills relating to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- HSE culture and correct safety behaviour- Prevention of work accidents- Use of relevant fire/rescue equipment- Lifesaving first-aid- Collective means of evacuation- Correct use of survival suit with emergency breathing system- Helicopter evacuation (HUET) The course aims to create positive attitudes to the term HSE culture, as well as understanding for the social and physical working environments significance for life, health and values in work as well as recreational time.
Contents	The course follows the training guidelines issued by Offshore Norway for safety and emergency preparedness training. Introduction HSE culture and behaviour First-aid Collective evacuation by means of lifeboat and Escape chute Fire protection Sea rescue Helicopter evacuation
Exam	Written exam. The participants have to actively take part in both theoretical and practical exercises.