

OER108

On Scene Commander

Duration	2 1/2 days
Target group	Emergency response personnel assigned on-scene leadership/ coordinating responsibilities. The course meets the requirements of Norwegian Oil & Gas.
Prerequisites	Basic Safety Training Participated as an observer on Search and rescue course the practical part of the training, which is minimum 2 days or Search and rescue basic course.
Objective	To provide the participants with the basic knowledge and skills required to lead and coordinate resources in an emergency response situation.
Contents	Organising the incident site Assessing the situation Communication with line managers and emergency response management Resource deployment and giving orders Stress and crisis management Securing and normalising the accident site Planning of emergency response training and exercises.
Exam	Theoretical, written exam