

Course code	ORC104
Course name	VHF / SRC 2 days
Duration	2 days
Target group	All personnel who due to their role in the emergency response, or other reason,s are required to use VHF radio equipment in their work, for instance lifeboat and fast rescue craft coxswains and heliguards.
Prerequisites	None. It is advised that the delegates start Reading the textbook before the course starts.
Objective	Certification of personnel in accordance with Telenor's requirements for restricted radio-telephone operator certificates for maritime and mobile VHF services.
Contents	During the course, the following topics will be covered: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Radio station operator certificates- Radio correspondence, duty of confidentiality and professional secrecy- Distress signals and distress communication- Priority messages, distress messages and calls- Regulations, reporting and violations- Use of VHF telecommunications frequencies- Urgent and safety signals, rules for use- Emergency radio equipment- Phonetic alphabet- Communication procedures- Power supply.
Exam	Written exam.