

Water Management - Awareness

Duration 30 Minutes

Target group Oil & Gas Industry

Prerequisites No prerequisites are required to sit this course.

Objective

- LO1: Explain what wholesome water and potable water is
- LO2: Receiving water alongside (ex-pipe, road tankers)
- LO3: Receiving water from other vessels or barges
- LO4: Reverse Osmosis
- LO5: Evaporation
- LO6: Explain the various water treatment options (disinfection) available, including Chlorination, UV filtration, Silver Ionisation, Ultra-filtration
- LO7: Identify legislation applicable to water management
- LO8: Describe water management responsibilities for key job roles

Contents

The course is available in the following languages: English; Turkish. This awareness course is aimed at Medics, 2nd Engineers, Chief Officers or similar. Candidates will be able to identify basic components of water management systems. Significantly reducing the harm to the environment.

Exam

The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.