

Course code	LBS0018
Course name	Permit to Work
Duration	1/2 Day
Target group	A permit to work system is a formal method of ensuring that authorised and properly trained persons have thought about and assessed foreseeable risks and that they can be avoided by using suitable precautions in the workplace.
Prerequisites	Not applicable for this course
Objective	The aim of this course is to provide delegates with a general awareness of Permit to work systems their importance and their specific roles and responsibilities relating to the PTW System.
Contents	Need for work control Key elements of a PTW system Tasks controlled under a permit Roles and responsibilities within the PTW System Hazards, risk assessment and work control PTW Procedures (authorised, display, handover, suspension etc.)
Exam	On successful completion delegates will have completed a theoretical test and will have a general awareness relating to the requirement for obtaining work permit before any work being carried out and the procedures and key elements of their permit to work system. On successful completion of this course delegates will be issued and In House Training providers certificate