

Course code	LBS0842
Course name	Introduction to LOLER Planning
Duration	2 days
Target group	This course aims to provide delegates who are involved in LOLER lift planning an insight into how to plan, supervise and execute LOLER lifting operations to ensure all lifts are properly planned, adequately risk assessed and implemented safely.
Prerequisites	A Suitable Rigger Qualification or Relevant Industry Experience
Objective	On completion of this course delegates will have the knowledge to: Understand the requirement of LOLER regulations, Understand the risk involved in planning lifting operations, Understand how to complete a method statement and LOLER lifting plan
Contents	Theory: Appreciation of Health and Safety Legislation Planning of Lifting Operations The Selection of appropriate lifting equipment The Categorisation of the lifts Introduction of drawings and sketches in relation to lift plan Practical: Generate a suitable Lift Plan Generate a suitable Risk Assessment Carry out a suitable Tool Box Talk Execute the Lift Plan
Exam	On successful completion of course criteria, delegates will be awarded a RelyOn Nutec In-House Certificate. Course are conducted at RelyOn Nutec training centres at Aberdeen and Teesside or by prior arrangement at customers premises