

LBSRDL004

Control of Substances Hazardous to Health (COSHH)

Duration	40 Minutes
-----------------	------------

Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
---------------------	--------------------

Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
----------------------	---

Objective	LO1: Explain what COSHH is & why we need it LO2: Explain the COSHH Regulations LO3: Describe the employer and employee duties under the COSHH regulations LO4: Identify how you may come into contact with a hazardous substance LO5: Explain what a Safety Data Sheet is LO6: Identify the COSHH hazard symbols LO7: Describe the different control measures that can be used LO8: Identify the personal protective equipment specific to chemical applications LO9: Describe a COSHH Risk Assessment LO10: Identify good practices related to COSHH
------------------	--

Contents	The course is available in the following languages: English; Bahasa Malay; Spanish; Indonesian; Thai; Turkish This Control of Substances Hazardous to Health course is suitable for all candidates working with hazardous substances on a regular basis. The content in this course has been developed by qualified chemists and fully satisfies the requirements of the UK COSHH Regulations.
-----------------	---

Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.
-------------	--