

NSC0405

Train the Measurer

Duration	1/2 day
Target group	The course is aimed at personnel who are required to conduct the bi-deltoid measurement of helicopter passengers flying in the uk, which is a mandatory requirement as of 1st April 2015
Prerequisites	N/A
Objective	The objective is to ensure that candidates are able to conduct bi-deltoid measurements and record accurate measurements. On succesful course completion all candidates will receive the recording data required to complete and forward for uploading details onto the vantage POB system.
Contents	Theory: Why Measure What to measure How to measure How to record the results Practical: Trainer to demonstrate how to measure and record results Candidate will be assessed measuring a number of passengers and recording results
Exam	On successful completion of the course all candidates will receive a Step Change for Safety Certificate, and a Measurer License Number. The course can be conducted at either RelyOnNutech centres in Teeside or Aberdeen, or on client premises by request.