

Course code	OBSRDL025
Course name	Respiratory Protective Equipment (RPE) - Digital Learning
Duration	25 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Explain the legislation, roles and responsibilities relating to RPE LO2: Explain how to select appropriate RPE for a given task LO3: Identify the various types of filters and their associated use LO4: Identify the various types of RPE used offshore LO5: Describe the factors to be aware for ensuring properly fitting RPE LO6: Explain how to correctly maintain, store and dispose of RPE
Contents	This course will help you to understand the importance of proper Respiratory Protective Equipment (RPE) use in hazardous workplace environments. You will learn about legislation, maintenance, and fit of various types of RPE, and be able to select adequate and suitable RPE for a given task or situation.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.