

Course code	IBSRDL648
Course name	Hazard Communication Awareness (OSHA)
Duration	30 Minutes
Target group	Oil & Gas Industry
Prerequisites	No prerequisites are required to sit this course.
Objective	LO1: Explain The Hazard Communication Standard  LO2: Identify HAZCOM requirements for training  LO3: Define physical hazards under HAZCOM  LO4: Explain health hazards under HAZCOM  LO5: Describe the purpose of hazard classification and labels  LO6: Identify different types of National Fire Protection Association labels  LO7: Identify different types of HMIS labels  LO8: Describe Department of Transportation placards and relevant regulations and rules  LO9: Describe situations which do not require a label  LO10: Describe the contents of a Material Safety Data Sheet  LO11: Explain what is included in the Chemical Identity, Health Hazards and Exposure Limits section of an MSDS  LO12: Describe what is included in the Chemical Ingredients, First Aid and Emergency Measures and Physical and Chemical Properties sections of an MSDS  LO13: Explain what is included in the Fire Safety, Chemical Handling and Accidental Release Procedure of an MSDS  LO14: Describe what is included in the Reactivity and Other Information sections of an MSDS
Contents	The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is an agency of the United States Department of Labour.  29 CFR 1910.1200  In this course you will learn about the Hazard Communication Standard (HAZCOM) and identify requirements for training. You will be able to define physical and health hazards under HAZCOM. You will be able to describe the purpose of hazard classification and labels and be able to identify different types of labels. You will be able to describe the contents of a Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) and explain the information included in different sections.
Exam	The assessment is taken during the course and is within the expected duration.